Allan TOLLEY

My principal place of residence is in the Whakatāne-Ōhope Community Board area.

Member of the Ohope Community Board.
Eight years as Assistant Works Manager freezing works W & R Fletcher.

Five years Chair of Friends of Hawkes Bay Cultural Trust, 2000 members.

Five years board member of Hawkes Bay Cultural Trust. This included the museum in Napier and the Art Gallery in Hastings. Chaired the above organisation for some two Years.

Chaired Gisborne Volunteer Centre. Helped to develop this organisation into a major charity in Poverty Bay.

Member of Whakatane Historical Society.

Foundation member of Whakatane Sunrise Rotary Club.

For four years I have been walking my dog the length and breadth of Ohope and also the public spaces in Whakatane. I have been talking to people and observing what is taking place. This has given me an understanding of our community. The knowledge gained has been a great help in recommending changes through my work for the Community Board.
