

Whakatāne District Council
Tāneatua-Waimana Ward
Electing 1 Councillor

Ian SHEARER

My principal place of residence is in the Tāneatua-Waimana Ward area.

I was born and educated in Whakatāne and lived on my father's farm on Tāneatua Road until I went to Massey University.

I have three agricultural science degrees, including a doctorate, and was a research scientist at Ruakura for almost 9 years.

My wife Cheryl and I live in a mobile home just out of Tāneatua. Since retiring I have written my autobiography and three historical publications based in the Bay of Plenty.

Local Body and other governance experience: Three years, Capital & Coast District Health Board; Three years, Chair, Hospital Advisory Committee; Nine years, Member of Parliament; Three and a half years, Cabinet Minister; Twice Acting Director of the Waitangi Tribunal.

Operational experience: Eleven years, Manager of the Waitangi Tribunal; Nine years, Foundation Dean of Science and Engineering at the Auckland University of Technology; Fellow of NZ Institute of Management; Justice of the Peace since 1990.
